Project SEARCH is an internationally recognized, one-year school-to-work program for young adults, ages 18-21, with disabilities in their last year of high school. Students will spend a year at a host business site that seamlessly combines on-site classroom instruction, career exploration and on-the-job training and support.

The goal for each student is full-time competitive employment in an integrated setting.

Interested students will have an opportunity to apply to the program through their school district.
